

10th Social Studies Ohio Graduation Test
Skills and Methods Standard

Benchmark A

Question 7	Spring 2005		B
Question 11	Spring 2005		C
Question 21	Spring 2005		B
Question 27	Spring 2005		C
Question 3	9 th Practice		C
Question 15	9 th Practice		C
Question 18	9 th Practice	Scoring Guidelines for Question 18 Score point    Description 2 points        The response identifies the supporters' statement as including credible sources of information and explains why agreement with credible sources makes a statement believable. 1 point        The response identifies the supporters' statement as including credible sources of information but fails to offer an adequate explanation as to why agreement with credible sources makes a statement believable OR the response fails to identify the supporters' statement as including credible sources of information but does explain why agreement with credible sources makes a statement believable. 0 points        The response does not meet any of the above criteria. The response may discuss other factors that lend credibility to a source.
Question 21	9 th Practice		B
Question 29	9 th Practice		B

Benchmark B

Question 38	9 th Practice		D
Question 33	9 th Practice		D
Question 5	9 th Practice		C
Question 42	Spring 2005	Scoring Guidelines for Item 42: <table border="0"> <thead> <tr> <th>Score point</th> <th>Description</th> </tr> </thead> <tbody> <tr> <td>2 points</td> <td>The response provides an accurate and complete explanation of how the data support the governor's assertion.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>1 point</td> <td>The response provides a partially accurate and/or incomplete explanation of how the data support the governor's assertion.</td> </tr> <tr> <td>0 points</td> <td>The response does not meet any of the above criteria.</td> </tr> </tbody> </table> Note: A response that elects to support and refute the governor's assertion will receive a score of zero.	Score point	Description	2 points	The response provides an accurate and complete explanation of how the data support the governor's assertion.	1 point	The response provides a partially accurate and/or incomplete explanation of how the data support the governor's assertion.	0 points	The response does not meet any of the above criteria.
Score point	Description
2 points	The response provides an accurate and complete explanation of how the data support the governor's assertion.
1 point	The response provides a partially accurate and/or incomplete explanation of how the data support the governor's assertion.
0 points	The response does not meet any of the above criteria.
Question 44	Spring 2005		B
Question 9	Spring 2005		D
Question 15	Spring 2005		D								